The university's mission encompasses the dissemination of knowledge while preserving and promoting India's rich heritage encapsulated within the ancient Sanskrit language and Literature through dedicated research and scholarly inquiry. Simultaneously, it aims to elevate the calibre OF VALUE-BASED EDUCATION THROUGH A METHODOICAL approach to higher learning that transcends any form of discrimination.

To realize these ambitions, the University consistently endeavours to kindle societal enthusiasm for India's diverse and culturally rich tradition. This is achieved through the preservation and propagation of various Shasta's, which are the repositories of India's cultural and spiritual legacy. Over the past four decades, the University has prominently contributed to the safeguarding, propagation, and promotion of Sanskrit Language and Literature. This has been accomplished through the scholarly examination of shastras, through modern pedagogical approaches.

Striving to fulfil these goals, furthermore, the university remains fervently committed to safeguarding and advancing Indian knowledge systems through study, research and publication.

Shri Jagannath cult is another area of study and research by Shri Jagannath Sanskrit Vishvavidyalaya.
